HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

Start with the court, then the path, then the paperwork.

Most family-law problems get simpler once you can name three things: which court handles your issue, which path fits your situation, and what you need to file. This guide is built around those questions. Here is how Guernsey County splits the work.

MARRIED OR FORMERLY MARRIED

General Division

Divorce, dissolution, legal separation, annulment, spousal support, and the property, support, and parenting issues inside those cases — plus civil protection orders. The General Division judges (Padden and Bennett) assign each case to the Judge or a Magistrate. You file with the Clerk of Courts.

PARENTS NEVER MARRIED

Juvenile Court

Parentage, custody, parenting time, and child support when the parents were never married to each other, plus changes to those orders. Heard in the Juvenile Division by Judge David B. Bennett and Magistrate Peter N. Cultice.

ADOPTION

Probate Court

Stepparent and kinship adoption, name changes, and marriage licenses. The Probate Division, under the same judge and magistrate as Juvenile, same courthouse. Adoption permanently changes a child's legal parents.

READ THIS FIRST

This guide is information, not legal advice.

It explains how things generally work in Guernsey County, but it can't account for the facts of your situation. Reading it, downloading it, or contacting Gavvl Law does not make you a client or create an attorney-client relationship. Only a signed engagement agreement does that. For advice about your own case, talk with a licensed Ohio attorney.

YOUR COURTS AT A GLANCE

The one local thing to know first

In Guernsey County the General Division handles divorce, dissolution, and support, with each case assigned to the Judge or a Magistrate; the same Judge (Bennett) and Magistrate (Cultice) run the Juvenile and Probate Divisions. The Clerk offers online e-services for case search and filing at clerkofcourts.guernseycounty.org. One rule to know early: with minor children, both parents must complete the mandatory Family Matters seminar within 45 days, and no case reaches a final hearing until they do (Local Rule 19.07).

PART ONE

Domestic Relations: divorce, dissolution & married-parent cases.

If you are married, ending the marriage runs through the General Division of Common Pleas, which encompasses Domestic Relations; each case is assigned to a Judge (Padden or Bennett) or a Magistrate. The first question is usually whether you and your spouse agree on everything.

QUICK PATHFINDER

Do you both agree on every term?

If yes, a dissolution may fit — you file together and ask the court to approve your signed agreement. If no, or if you need the case started before you negotiate, a divorce is the path that gives you deadlines, temporary orders, and a judge to decide what you can't.

IN THIS PART

- Dissolution (you agree) and divorce (you don't)
- Custody, parenting time, and child support
- Dividing property and spousal support
- Temporary orders and restraining orders
- Changing or enforcing an order; legal separation, annulment
- Protection orders and staying safe

PATH A · AGREEMENT

Dissolution: ending a marriage you both agree on.

A dissolution is a no-fault way to end a marriage when you and your spouse agree on everything before you file — property, debts, spousal support, and (if you have children) custody, parenting time, and child support. You file together and both attend a short final hearing. A dissolution is not the same as an uncontested divorce.

COURT	FILING DEPOSIT	SERVICE	FINAL HEARING
General Division	$250	Usually waived	30–90 days

This path may fit if...

- You and your spouse agree the marriage should end.
- You agree on property, debt, support, and (with kids) parenting and child support.
- Both of you can sign the agreement and attend the final hearing.

Watch the agreement, not just the forms.
 A clean-looking packet can still cause problems later if retirement, taxes, the house, debt, insurance, or parenting terms are vague. The court can approve terms that are clear enough to enforce even when they are not good terms for you.

Core filing	Petition for Dissolution (SF 17)
Agreement	Separation Agreement (SF 19), signed by both
If minor children	Parenting plan, child-support worksheet, health-insurance details
Final step	A short hearing (about 15 minutes) where both spouses confirm the agreement

GUERNSEY NOTE
Both of you must show up.
 A dissolution is only valid if both spouses attend the final hearing and still agree. With minor children, both parents must complete the mandatory Family Matters seminar within 45 days of filing.

DISSOLUTION · PAPERWORK

What you file, what it costs, and what happens next.

Guernsey County uses the Ohio Supreme Court standardized dissolution forms, plus the county Financial Affidavit (Form D-1). You file with the Clerk of Courts; the Judge or a Magistrate hears the case.

FORM	WHERE TO GET IT	WHAT IT'S FOR
Petition for Dissolution (SF 17) https://www.supremecourt.ohio.gov/docs/JCS/CFC/DRForms/Form17.pdf	Supreme Court of Ohio	Starts the joint case and waives formal service.
Separation Agreement (SF 19) https://www.supremecourt.ohio.gov/docs/JCS/CFC/DRForms/Form19.pdf	Supreme Court of Ohio	Your signed deal on property, debt, and support.
Parenting Proceeding Affidavit (Affidavit 3) https://www.supremecourt.ohio.gov/docs/JCS/CFC/DRForms/Affidavit3.pdf	Supreme Court of Ohio	Required when minor children are involved.
Shared Parenting Plan / Parenting Plan (SF 20 / SF 21) https://www.supremecourt.ohio.gov/docs/JCS/CFC/DRForms/Form20.pdf	Supreme Court of Ohio	Your parenting plan, if you have minor children.

△ Heads up: With minor children you must also file a child-support worksheet and a Title IV-D notice (Form D-4); and both parents must complete the mandatory Family Matters seminar within 45 days (Rule 19.07).

How filing works

1. Reach full agreement, then prepare your Separation Agreement and the Financial Affidavit (Form D-1) (and a parenting plan, if you have kids).
2. File the joint petition and agreement with the Clerk and pay the $250 deposit (a fee waiver is available with Form D-18). Get your hearing date at filing.
3. Attend the final hearing 30 to 90 days after filing — both of you — and confirm the agreement; the court signs the decree.

PATH B · DISAGREEMENT

Divorce: when you don't agree, or need the court to act.

A divorce ends a marriage through a case one spouse files against the other. It doesn't have to mean a trial — most settle. Your first question: are you starting the case, or were you served?

01

You are starting the case

You file a Complaint for Divorce with the Clerk of Courts. With children, use Form 7; without, Form 6. The complaint opens the case and asks the court to have your spouse served.

02

You were served papers

You file an Answer within 28 days, and usually a Counterclaim so you can ask for your own relief. Do not wait for the hearing date — missing the answer deadline can cost you.

USE DIVORCE WHEN

You need a deadline, a temporary order, or a judge's decision.

Often the necessary path when a spouse won't sign, money is unclear, parenting time is disputed, or you need the court to act before a settlement.

UNCONTESTED ≠ DISSOLUTION

What "uncontested" means in Ohio

An uncontested (default) divorce is a regular divorce the court grants on your evidence when your spouse won't take part or can't be found (served by publication). It is not a dissolution, which needs full agreement.

1

Complaint filed

One spouse files; the clerk issues service by certified mail, sheriff, or — if needed — publication.

2

Service & answer

The other spouse is served and has 28 days to answer and counterclaim.

3

Temporary orders

Either side can ask for temporary support or parenting; any ex parte restraining order must be mutual (Rule 19.03).

4

Settlement or decision

The Judge or a Magistrate hears it; a Magistrate's decision becomes the decree after the 14-day objection period.

DIVORCE · PAPERWORK & DEADLINES

State forms plus a county affidavit or two.

Guernsey County uses the Ohio Uniform divorce forms plus the county Financial Affidavit (Form D-1), which stays confidential. File with the Clerk; online e-services are available.

COMMON MISTAKES TO AVOID

What sends Guernsey filings back

- Signing forms before you are in front of the notary.
- Forgetting the Financial Affidavit (Form D-1), or — with children — the Parenting Proceeding Affidavit (Form D-3), the child-support worksheet, or the IV-D notice.
- Skipping the mandatory Family Matters seminar — no case reaches a final hearing until both parents complete it.

DEADLINES THAT MATTER

The clocks in a Guernsey divorce

28 days to file your Answer after service (Civ.R. 12). With minor children, the Family Matters seminar is due within 45 days, and no case reaches a final hearing until it's done (Rule 19.07). On an ex parte order, a hearing is set within 14 days at any party's request (Rule 19.03).

CUSTODY & PARENTING TIME

Learn the words Ohio actually uses.

Ohio does not use “joint custody,” “sole custody,” or “primary custody.” Learning the real terms matters, because the court and your paperwork will use them.

TWO ARRANGEMENTSShared parenting or one residential parent

The court either adopts shared parenting under a written plan, or names one parent the residential parent and legal custodian. Both parents can have a lot of time in either setup.

DECISIONS VS. ADDRESSLegal custody vs. residential parent

Legal custody is the authority to make major decisions. The residential parent is mostly the address used for school and similar purposes. They are not the same thing.

THE SCHEDULEParenting time is separate

Parenting time is the schedule. It is set on the child’s best interest and is not decided by the custody label — parents can share time equally or unequally in either arrangement.

GUERNSEY SPECIFICSGuernsey publishes standard parenting schedules.

Unless parents agree otherwise, parenting time in a divorce follows the county’s Standard and Long-Distance Parenting Schedules (Form D-7, Rule 19.04). For unmarried parents, the Juvenile Court uses its own Standard Order of Parenting Time (Rule 38) — alternate weekends plus a weekday evening. The court can set a different schedule on best interest.

PARENTING SEMINARFamily Matters (mandatory)

In any divorce, dissolution, or legal separation with minor children, both parents must complete the mandatory Family Matters seminar within 45 days of filing (Rule 19.07). No case reaches a final hearing until they do. Ask the Domestic Relations office for the current provider.

IF YOU ASK FOR SHARED PARENTINGYou must file a plan

Asking for shared parenting is not enough on its own. The parent who wants it must submit a proposed shared parenting plan, or the court can’t consider it.

CHILD SUPPORT

How the number is set, paid, and changed.

Ohio uses an income-shares model: support is calculated from both parents' income, the cost of the child's health insurance, and work-related childcare. It is figured the same way whether you have shared parenting or one residential parent.

What drives the number

- Both parents' gross income (the court can impute income to a parent who is voluntarily unemployed or underemployed).
- The cost of the child's health insurance.
- Work-related childcare costs.
- Parenting time: 90 or more overnights a year usually triggers a 10% adjustment.

ESTIMATE IT

Run your own numbers with Gavvl's Ohio child support calculator:

gavvl.com/child-support-calculator

(<https://gavvl.com/child-support-calculator>)

Who administers it	Guernsey County CSEA, (740) 432-2381
How it's paid	Through the Ohio Child Support Payment Center (CSPC)
When it can change	A substantial change — often a 10%+ change in the guideline amount — or 36 months after the order (administrative review)
When it ends	When the child turns 18 and graduates high school, or turns 19, whichever comes first (longer by agreement or for a child with special needs)

GOOD TO KNOW

Agreeing to less doesn't bind the court.

If both parents agree to a lower amount, the court still orders what it finds is in the child's best interest. It does not have to approve a lower number.

DIVIDING PROPERTY & SPOUSAL SUPPORT

Equitable does not mean equal.

Ohio courts divide marital property and debt fairly — which is not always 50/50.

What counts as marital usually turns on when something was acquired, not whose name is on it.

MARITAL VS. SEPARATE

When, not whose name
Property and debt built up during the marriage are usually marital. Inheritances and gifts are usually separate — if you can trace them. Mixing separate money into joint accounts can change that.

THE HARD ASSETS

Homes, retirement, business
Home equity and retirement are often part marital, part separate. Retirement is divided by a QDRO; some Ohio public pensions use a DOPO; military retirement has its own rules. A house, a business, or disputed values may need an appraisal or valuation.

TEMPORARY ORDERS

Restraining orders are by motion, and mutual
Guernsey does not auto-issue a restraining order. Either spouse can ask for a temporary order against draining accounts, canceling insurance, or hiding assets — and any ex parte restraining order must be mutual, with a hearing set within 14 days at any party's request (Rule 19.03).

SPOUSAL SUPPORTCan it be changed later?

A court can order spousal support in a divorce or legal separation. After the decree, it can be modified only if the decree reserved that power and circumstances have changed (R.C. 3105.18). If support matters in your case, file the Financial Affidavit & Health Insurance form (Form D-1), which stays confidential.

A note on fault

It is usually wise to include no-fault grounds. Courts will not punish a spouse for bad behavior by itself — but behavior that drained marital money or affected the children's safety can matter to the result. Ohio does not recognize common-law marriage; the date of marriage, and the date of separation, are what count.

TEMPORARY ORDERS & RESTRAINING ORDERS

Rules for money, the house, and the kids while the case is open.

While a divorce, legal separation, or annulment is pending, either spouse can ask the court for temporary orders, and in urgent situations for emergency (ex parte) orders. For violence, see the protection-order section.

Temporary restraining orders (by motion, mutual)

Guernsey does not issue an automatic restraining order. On a sworn motion and affidavit, either spouse can ask the court to restrain harassing the other or the children, running up joint debt, selling or hiding assets, or changing insurance or beneficiaries. Any ex parte restraining order must be mutual (Rule 19.03).

EMERGENCY (EX PARTE) ORDERS

When there is a real, immediate danger.

To ask for an emergency order, counsel arranges a personal conference with the Judge or Magistrate and presents a proposed entry; the request needs a sworn affidavit and any ex parte restraining order must be mutual. The order stays in effect until hearing, and a hearing is set within 14 days at any party's request (Rule 19.03).

TEMPORARY SUPPORT & CUSTODY

While you wait for the final order

The court can set temporary custody, parenting time, child support, and spousal support under Civ.R. 75(N). Financial requests need the Financial Affidavit (Form D-1); a temporary order can be sought without an oral hearing using Affidavit 5.

CHANGING OR ENFORCING AN ORDER

After the decree, you go back to the same case.

Changes and enforcement happen by motion in your original General Division case, heard by the Judge or a Magistrate. A post-decree motion deposit is $200.

CHANGE CUSTODYChange in circumstances

To change the residential parent or legal custodian, you show a change in circumstances and that the change serves the child's best interest (R.C. 3109.04). The court weighs the child's best interest and may appoint a guardian ad litem.

CHANGE PARENTING TIMEBest interest

Changing the schedule uses the best-interest standard (R.C. 3109.051). Use the Supreme Court's Motion to Change Parenting Time (SF 26).

CHANGE SUPPORTSubstantial change

Ask for a review on a substantial change — often 10%+ — through the court or an administrative review at the CSEA. Spousal support changes only if the decree reserved jurisdiction.

ENFORCEMENTWhen the other side won't follow the order

File a Motion for Contempt (Form 24) with a Show Cause Order and Notice (Form 25). The court can order make-up parenting time, a payment purge order (specific conditions to fix the violation and avoid the penalty), attorney fees, and — for willful violations — jail.

OUT-OF-STATE ORDERSRegistering a foreign order

To enforce or change an out-of-state order here, you register it: custody under the UCCJEA (R.C. Chapter 3127), support under UIFSA (R.C. Chapter 3115, through the CSEA). Registering a foreign decree is a $25 deposit; ask the Clerk.

Moving with the children

A residential parent who intends to move must file the county's Notice to Relocate (Form D-17) under R.C. 3109.051(G)(1), so the court can revisit parenting time if the move affects it.

LEGAL SEPARATION & ANNULMENT

Two narrower paths — and what they are not.

Both are filed with the Clerk of Courts and heard by the Judge or a Magistrate. Keep them separate from divorce and dissolution, and from each other.

LEGAL SEPARATION (R.C. 3105.17)Divides things, but you stay married

A legal separation can divide property and set support, custody, and parenting time without ending the marriage. People choose it for religious or insurance reasons, or when they don't yet meet divorce residency. It is filed and processed like a divorce ($250 deposit; with minor children, the mandatory Family Matters seminar applies). It does not free either spouse to remarry, and either spouse can later seek a divorce.

ANNULMENT (R.C. 3105.31)Treats the marriage as never valid

An annulment is a court declaration that a marriage was void or voidable — not a divorce, and not available just because a marriage was short. Grounds are specific (for example bigamy, fraud or force, being under the age of consent, or a marriage never consummated) and carry strict time limits and proof requirements. Because it turns on those grounds, get legal advice.

Always confirm with the court

Counties handle annulment details differently, and Guernsey County publishes little on it — the standard Ohio forms and process apply. Confirm with the Clerk of Courts before you rely on a specific procedure. Military and international divorces also have their own rules and usually need experienced handling.

PROTECTION ORDERS

A court order to stop threats, abuse, or stalking.

In Guernsey County, civil protection orders are filed with the Clerk of Courts and heard in the General Division. There is no filing fee for the person asking for protection — ever.

PROTECTING YOURSELF & YOUR KIDS

A few habits that help more than they seem to.

Family-law cases are stressful, and small choices can have big effects. None of this is about “winning” — it’s about protecting your children and yourself.

DOKeep a clear record

- Move important conversations to writing, and save texts, emails, and account information.
- Keep a simple timeline of missed visits or incidents.
- Follow every existing order, even an imperfect one.

DON'TAvoid the backfires

- Don't post about your case or your spouse on social media.
- Don't use the children as messengers or pull them into the conflict.
- Don't lock a spouse out, cancel their insurance, or destroy property — it violates the standard orders and hurts your case.

Kids' safety comes first — and so does yours.

If you are dealing with violence, financial pressure, or instability, help exists. Guernsey County Children Services (740) 439-5555; statewide 855-OH-CHILD; National Domestic Violence Hotline 1-800-799-7233; or 911 in an emergency. Reach out — prioritizing well-being is not a sign of weakness.

PART TWO

Juvenile Court: custody when parents were never married.

When parents were never married to each other, the Guernsey County Juvenile Division (Judge Bennett and Magistrate Cultice) handles parentage, custody, parenting time, and child support. The first question is whether there is already a court order.

QUICK PATHFINDER

Is there already an order?

Setting up a first order is different from changing one that already exists. And for an unmarried father, establishing parentage comes before — and separately from — any custody or parenting-time rights.

IN THIS PART

- Establishing parentage and first custody orders
- Parenting time and grandparent companionship
- Legal custody to a grandparent or other relative
- Changing or enforcing a juvenile order
- When Children Services is involved (CPS cases)

PARENTAGE & CUSTODY FOR UNMARRIED PARENTS

Two separate steps, in the right order.

Until a court orders otherwise, an unmarried mother is the sole residential parent and legal custodian by law (R.C. 3109.042). An unmarried father has to take two separate steps — and the order is the part people most often get wrong.

01

Establish parentage first

By a signed Acknowledgment of Paternity, an administrative order through the CSEA (it can order a DNA test), or a parentage case in Juvenile Court. This triggers child support — but by itself it does not give custody or parenting time.

02

Then ask for custody / parenting time

Separately file in the Juvenile Court to be named residential parent or to set up shared parenting and a schedule. An at-home DNA test won't establish legal parentage — the court orders the test.

CHILD SUPPORT

Set the same way

The Juvenile Court (with the CSEA) sets support under the Ohio guidelines (R.C. Chapter 3119) and it is paid through Ohio Child Support Payment Central. Estimate it at gavvl.com/child-support-calculator

(<https://gavvl.com/child-support-calculator>).

WHAT IT COSTS

In the Juvenile Division, a new parentage or custody case is a $175 deposit. If the court orders genetic testing, the DNA deposit is $375 (alleged father plus one child); a guardian ad litem deposit is $2,000 if one is appointed. Confirm current amounts at (740) 432-9266.

PARENTING TIME, COMPANIONSHIP & NON-PARENT CUSTODY

Time with a child — for parents and for relatives.

The words matter here. Parenting time is time a parent spends with a child; companionship (sometimes called visitation) is time a non-parent, like a grandparent, spends with a child.

GRANDPARENT / RELATIVE COMPANIONSHIP

Court-ordered time, in some situations

Ohio lets grandparents and certain relatives ask for companionship in defined situations — for example after a parent's death (R.C. 3109.11), or when parents are unmarried or divorcing (R.C. 3109.12). The court decides on the child's best interest.

LEGAL CUSTODY TO A NON-PARENT

When a relative is raising the child

A grandparent or other adult can ask the Juvenile Court for legal custody (R.C. 2151.23). Because parents have a protected interest, a non-parent generally must first show the parents are unsuitable. Legal custody leaves the parents' residual rights intact — it is less permanent than adoption.

SHORT OF FULL CUSTODY

Grandparent Power of Attorney

For school and medical decisions short of full custody, a relative caregiver can use Ohio's Power of Attorney or Caretaker Authorization Affidavit (R.C. 3109.51–3109.80). The Juvenile Division provides a Grandparent Power of Attorney at no cost: Power of Attorney form (<http://www.supremecourt.ohio.gov/docs/JCS/CFC/DRForms/powerAtty.pdf>).

GUERNSEY SPECIFICS

Standard schedules apply.

In divorce cases, Guernsey uses the Standard and Long-Distance Parenting Schedules (Form D-7). For unmarried parents, the Juvenile Court's Standard Order of Parenting Time (Rule 38) gives the non-residential parent alternate weekends (Friday 6 p.m. to Sunday 6 p.m.) plus a Wednesday evening. Get the current forms on the county DR page (<https://guernseycounty.gov/clerk-of-courts/domestic-relations-division/>).

CHANGING A JUVENILE ORDER · WHEN CHILDREN SERVICES IS INVOLVED

Two very different situations.

Changes to a juvenile order happen in the same Juvenile case. A child-protection (CPS) case is something else entirely — it is brought by the county to keep a child safe, not a custody fight between two parents.

MODIFY OR ENFORCE

Back to the same Juvenile case

To change custody, show a change in circumstances plus best interest (R.C. 3109.04). To change parenting time, show best interest (R.C. 3109.051). To change support, show a substantial change, often 10%+ (R.C. 3119.79). To enforce an order, file a Motion for Contempt (Form 24) with a Show Cause Order (Form 25) in the Juvenile case — not the General Division.

REPORTING ABUSE OR NEGLECT

Who to call in Guernsey County.

Guernsey County Children Services: (740) 439-5555 during business hours and after hours. The statewide hotline is 855-OH-CHILD (855-642-4453), 24/7, or 911 in an emergency. Ohio law protects good-faith reports.

FORM	WHERE TO GET IT	WHAT IT'S FOR
Motion for Change of Custody (SF 27 / JF 6) https://www.supremecourt.ohio.gov/docs/JCS/CFC/DRForms/Form27.pdf	Supreme Court of Ohio	Asks to change the custody order.
Motion for Contempt (SF 24 / JF 3) https://www.supremecourt.ohio.gov/docs/JCS/CFC/DRForms/Form24.pdf	Supreme Court of Ohio	Enforces a juvenile order; file it with a Show Cause Order (Form 25).

IF A CPS CASE IS OPENED

What to expect — and your rights

Children Services assesses risk and usually tries to keep children safely at home with services, looking first to a relative if placement is needed. A court case can lead to protective supervision, temporary custody, a reunification case plan, or — in the most serious cases — termination of parental rights. You have the right to an attorney, including an appointed one if you qualify, and the court appoints a guardian ad litem for the child.

PART THREE

Probate Court: stepparent & kinship adoption.

Adoptions go through the Guernsey County Probate Division (Judge Bennett, Magistrate Cultice), Suite 203-D, 801 East Wheeling Avenue — (740) 432-9262. It permanently changes a child's legal parents.

CONSENT

Whose yes you need

Usually both birth parents must consent. Consent may not be required if a parent failed, without justifiable cause, to support or contact the child for a year (R.C. 3107.07) — common in stepparent cases. A child 12+ usually consents too.

HOME STUDY

Always required — not scary

The court arranges any required home study or assessment; a stepparent adoption may have a streamlined one. A standard step, not a test you “pass.”

CUSTODY IS NOT ADOPTION

A permanent change

Legal custody can change later and leaves a parent's rights intact. Adoption permanently ends them and is final. In Ohio, unmarried people can't adopt together.

1

File the petition

With the child's information and the required consents (or an allegation that consent isn't required). A stepparent/grandparent adoption deposit is $427.50; any home-study cost is extra.

2

Home study & hearing

Complete the home study; notice goes to those entitled to it; the court hears consent and best interest.

3

Decree & new certificate

The court enters the decree; a new birth certificate issues. Files are sealed by law.

IS ADOPTION THE RIGHT STEP?

Adoption questions are worth a conversation.

Consent and notice rules are where adoptions get complicated. The 2-minute quiz can help you sort out where you stand.

PART FOUR

How Gavvl Law can help.

This guide gave you the map. If you'd like company on the road, here is what working with our firm looks like. You don't always need the same kind of help — and we'll tell you when you don't.

FULL REPRESENTATION

A lawyer manages the whole case with you.

From first consultation through final orders: strategy, every filing, negotiation, and every court appearance. Best for complex, contested, or high-conflict cases, and anything that may go to trial. Billed as a retainer plus hourly fees.

LIMITED-SCOPE (FLAT FEE)

Hire us for the specific part you need.

Document drafting and filing, a single hearing, advice, or a document review — at a flat fee per task. Best for uncontested matters, simple modifications, and tight budgets. Not recommended for complex or high-conflict cases that need ongoing advocacy. A limited-scope matter can move to full representation if it becomes contested.

Divorce & dissolution

Strategy, settlement terms, filing packets, temporary orders, and final hearings.

Custody & parenting

Parenting schedules, shared parenting plans, modifications, and hearing preparation.

Child & spousal support

Support calculations, deviations, modifications, and enforcement.

Adoption

Stepparent and kinship adoption planning, consent review, and finalization.

WAYS TO PAYOptions that fit different budgets

The available options depend on the service model. For limited-scope flat-fee work, you can pay in full or use Affirm, Klarna, or PayPal financing — or Gavvl Direct, an in-house plan with no credit check (a financed balance carries 19% annual interest, compounded monthly). For full-representation retainers, you can pay in full or use Affirm. Exact payment amounts are calculated when you enroll. Financing questions: financing@gavvl.com.

IMPORTANT DISCLOSURES

The fine print, in plain language.

Please read these before relying on anything in this guide.

Information, not legal advice

This guide explains how things generally work in Guernsey County, but it can't account for the facts of your situation. Reading it, downloading it, or contacting Gavvl Law does not make you a client or create an attorney-client relationship. Only a signed engagement agreement does that. For advice about your own case, talk with a licensed Ohio attorney.

Fees and procedures change

Court fees, forms, and procedures change. The information here was verified as of June 18, 2026 from official Guernsey County court sources. Always confirm current fees and requirements with the Guernsey County Clerk of Courts before you file.

About awards and reviews

Awards, ratings, and reviews reflect the experiences of other clients and the opinions of the rating organizations. They are not a guarantee or prediction of the outcome of your case. Every case is different.
